Title: Casa de Paz, Los Laureles

Gorgeous Colonial style family home, with a linear structure on a one-floor plan, a fantastic private garden, solidly built 30 years ago. This home is divided in four main areas, entering through a stunning main hall with wood crafted double-height ceilings, followed by the open living and dining room facing the garden. Surrounding is a corridor that leads to the terrace which is ideal for entertaining.

On the right side are the kitchen, laundry and service area with private access to the garden. On the left side, are the four bedrooms with the TV room in the middle. The master suite is quite spacious and has two bathrooms and walk-in closets, with a gentle sensation of being surrounded by green with the birds singing throughout the day.

This house has artisan details like Nicaraguan handmade clay teaks and floors, wrought iron windows, and great quality woods. This is a spacious, comfortable, naturally lit and well ventilated home. Fabulous for who wants to live in a peaceful oasis in a prime location nearby to embassies, cafés, boutiques, shopping malls, schools, working areas and main roads. Very safe home with security locks and perimeter fence.
